ASEP Background

National Defense Authorization Act of 2002: Congressional mandate to improve employment opportunities for military spouses through corporate partnerships.

The Army Chief of Staff hosted a summit with 16 Fortune 500 companies in December 2002.

The Army Spouse Employment Partnership (ASEP) was formally unveiled in October 2003.

ASEP is supported by Army Senior Leadership as a national objective in order to improve the retention of quality military personnel

ASEP Today: A Component of Employment Readiness

- ?? ASEP Partners recruit Military Spouses from all Service branches.
- ?? No matter where you live—there is an ASEP Partner located near you.

What is ASEP?

ASEP consists of a small group of committed Partners from the private sector, military, and Federal government.

- ?? Visit the Work & Careers section of www. myarmylifetoo.com to see a list of ASEP partners

- ?? ASEP provides Military Spouses the opportunity to attain financial security and achieve employment through career mobility and enhanced employment options.
- ?? ASEP Partners have a global or regional presence in the communities that surround military installations where Military Spouses live and work.
- ?? As of the end of FY 2007, over 23,000 Military Spouses have been hired by ASEP Partners.
